

Activity

Book Group

When

3pm – 5pm, second Monday of every month

Where

Red Room, Number 6

More Information

- The group meets once a month.
- The group is run by Matthew Day (service coordinator)
- For the first hour the group will discuss the book that was picked the month before. For the second hour the group will discuss any books that they have read recently.
- There is a different genre of book chosen each month to read and then discuss at the next group.